*God is God all by himself and has chosen you to praise him
How can we not praise the God who chose to love us?*

I. The Wow Factor

- ♥ This Christian life is a walk of faith
- ♥ Wow- is used to express wonder and amazement; it’s a spontaneous reaction to someone or something it is an expression
- ♥ Wow- Walking on Water factor ( definition for the sisterhood class)
- ♥ Walking with God is a continuous process because we walk by faith and not by sight
- ♥ God is the light of the world and as long as you walk with him you will experience the newness of life.
- ♥ The word must become living in you in order for you to walk on the waters of your life.
- ♥ Don’t allow yourself to be bogged down by the cares of life; God wants you to cast all your cares so you can walk on the lightly
- ♥ The Duck mentality
  - A duck is a land and water animal; it moves gracefully in the water despite the storms. Ducks possess a gland that is an oily substance that makes their feathers detract the water that gets on them. That oil allows them to float on the water where other animals would drown.

Lesson 12 Part 1 Re-Cap | 09/25/2022| The “Wow”Factor

- ♥ Sistar you have to be like the duck filled with the oil of the Holy Spirit; the Holy spirit allows you to float on top of your problems
  - Ducks have hollow bone structures that allows them to be safe and protected.
- ♥ Sistar remember your bone structure is the foundation of God through his Holy word.
- ♥ When you go through the waters(troubles) of life you have the bone structure that is needed.

II. The Way Prepared

- ♥ There is a prepared way for all of us that call ourselves Christians
- ♥ The Bible wouldn't tell you to go through trials if a path had not been prepared already for you!
- ♥ There is something in the waters of life; you must believe that there is something in the water that will allow you to walk through the water
- ♥ Your faith is in the who; Believe in the who has prepared you for the what that prepares you for the when
- ♥ The lessons in life have to be applied; if you do not apply what you have learned you will continue to go through the same thing until the lesson has been learned
- ♥ If God tells you something, you can believe it and follow through with what he says.
- ♥ You are already in God's hands; he is a God of prevision and provision
- ♥ God already knows what is instore for you, so he has prevision, He has already provided which is why he gives you provision
- ♥ Understand you are never alone, and that God is never going to leave you!
- ♥ You are called for his calling and his purpose! You will get to the other side because God has already said so
- ♥ If God says it; you can rest assured and be able to say “Wow”
