

Lesson 13 Re-Cap | 10/09/2022 | "Sailing through uncharted territory"

“So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab; and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.” (Ruth 1:22)

“And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti” (Esther 2:17)

“But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.”
(James 1:22)

God is good all the time because he can't be anything else but good

I. Over-view

- ♥ God will supply your needs; not the wants but everything you need in life.
- ♥ A lesson from Chickens with attitude

There were a bunch of hens who had been on the chicken farm. They spent their days cackling and talking to each other. The farmer always came through and fed them what they needed to produce eggs like they were meant too. One day the head Hen of the group started grumbling and complaining about why they always had to eat corn. (Before this no one was complaining about what they were eating) The head hen was just in disarray because she was not happy. The head hen decided to encourage the others to go on strike. Every day the farmer would give them their ration, but they still refused to eat the corn. The chickens were excited about going on strike and thought it was working. The farmer was confused; and assumed the chickens would eventually eat. After a while the farmer said the chickens must be all laid out. Everyone knows that the only thing a laid-out chicken is good for is the soup pot!

Don't be a cackling hen Sistar!

Lesson 13 Re-Cap | 10/09/2022| “Sailing through uncharted territory”

- ♥ Preparation is the key to navigating the uncharted territories of life
- ♥ The lessons to come are going to discuss the type of woman = Godly woman that will be charting unknown territory
- ♥ When you face the uncertainties of life will you set sail or become shipwrecked
- ♥ Remembering who you are directly influences who you are and how you take on the challenges of life.
- ♥ A Godly woman takes on challenges remembering who she is, to whom she belongs too.
- ♥ Remembering who you are helps you sail through the uncharted territories of life.
- ♥ Godly living is about understanding that you are not directing your ship; you recognize that you are not in control but it’s the God who lives in and through you.

II. Ruth

- ♥ Ruth was willing to step into uncharted territory by trusting in a God she did not know.
- ♥ Moab= unbelief; the washpot, the garbage can
- ♥ Ruth and Naomi had to leave Moab because of famine = It is better to be in Christ and experience a famine than to be without God living in abundance
- ♥ Ruth and Naomi left during Barley Harvest- (Barley harvest means the place of new beginnings) in life you will have to be willing to leave toward your Barley harvest
- ♥ When you have faith in the right object(God) you can conquer the unknown territories of life.
- ♥ Ruth was from a land of unbelievers but was willing to go to uncharted territories and because of her obedience she is listed in the lineage of Christ
- ♥ Sistar you must be a Godly woman willing to charter life’s territories
- ♥ You are here for such a time as this; you are not too early nor are you too late
- ♥ Live in Proverbs 3:5-7; trust in the Lord and let the Lord sail your ship
