

LESSON RECAP – OCTOBER 26, 2025

Scripture Focus: John 6:29 (NIV) – “Jesus answered, ‘The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent.’”

Summary Paragraph

Tiffany’s message reminded us that our greatest work as believers isn’t about doing — it’s about believing. We often feel pressure to check spiritual boxes — prayer, service, study — but Jesus made it simple: our main work is to believe in Him.

In challenging times, when life feels heavy and faith feels thin, Jesus invites us not to perform more, but to trust more.

The heart of our relationship with God is our belief system — our anchor, our weapon, and our identity.

Main Points

1. Belief Is Our True Work

- The crowd asked Jesus what they should do to do the works of God.
- His answer: Believe in the One He sent.

Our faith isn’t measured by tasks completed, but by our trust in Christ.

2. Belief Is Our Identity

- Belief isn’t just something we practice occasionally — it’s who we are as daughters of the Most High.
- We’re not striving for approval; we’re standing in the grace we’ve already received (Ephesians 2:8–9).

LESSON RECAP – OCTOBER 26, 2025

Our belief keeps us anchored when the world shakes.

3. Belief Is Active — Not Passive

- To “abide in Him” (John 15:4–5) means continually believing, trusting, and depending on Christ.
- When we believe, we activate the supernatural power within us — the same power that raised Christ from the dead.

4. Belief Brings Confidence and Command

- Like soldiers following their commander, we trust our Commander-in-Chief, Jesus.
- We don’t fight for victory — we fight from victory, because it’s already won through the cross.

Our confidence comes from obeying the One who leads us.

5. Belief Must Be Declared

- What we believe should come out of our mouths!
- Romans 10:10 says belief happens in the heart, but confession comes from the mouth.
- Proverbs 18:21: Life and death are in the power of the tongue.

Declare God’s promises:

- “No weapon formed against me shall prosper” (Isaiah 54:17)
- “The joy of the Lord is my strength” (Nehemiah 8:10)
- “I am strong in the Lord and in His mighty power” (Ephesians 6:10)

Final Encouragement

- Your belief is your weapon, your anchor, and your identity.
- God isn’t asking for perfection — He’s asking for faith.
- When the Commander speaks, our job is simple: say it, do it, and go — believing that He already has the victory.

LESSON RECAP – OCTOBER 26, 2025

Speak life. Declare truth. Believe boldly.

Closing Declaration

*“Lord, today I choose to believe — not in my strength, but in Yours.
My belief is my weapon, my anchor, and my identity.
I believe You are who You say You are,
and I will speak Your Word over every area of my life.
I walk not in striving, but in victory. Amen.”*
