Tiffany Lesson Recap | 05/21/2023 | “Left, Left, Your Left , Right Left- fall back and get in line”

The following is a recap from Sistar Tiffany’s Lesson on 5-21-23.

God wants you to get in line and use your weapon.

I.The Cadence!

In the military there is a step order that troops must follow! Often there is a drill sergeant who is leading the way and is giving the marching orders to the troop. When the drill sergeant is giving the commands of Left, Left, Left, your left right left....the drill sergeant is actually telling the troop I need you to keep up in time and doing immediately because there is somewhere the troop needs to go!

Sometimes the drill sergeant will review how the troops are moving and will look to see if someone is out of place. Once he finds the recruit who is out of line...he says “halt(stop) and he will direct his command to that one and say fall back and get in line...there is a destination we have to get to... we need to move as one and do it right away!

- Sistar the drill sergeant represents God...and he is keeping time with our lives!
- God is giving orders for our lives!
- God wants your obedience
- Obedience- “Doing what God has tasked you to the first time, and doing it immediately

III. The halt!

- Drill sergeant is so good that he watches out for you to make sure your going in the right direction
- In our moments of getting out of line...drill sergeant will sometimes have to get on us...and give us a swat to fall back in line.
- When he halts us all we have to do is follow drill sergeant's instruction and fall back into step
- When drill sergeant speaks it's your responsibility to follow the instructions
- Make everyday your new day; give God your "HUA" and fallback in line with God's word!
- Get in step with God Sistar!
